Women Walking With God

MEMBERS

Anything special, big, and worthwhile a church attempts, be it a new program, evangelism, visitation, Vacation Bible School, a lectureship, or whatever, will fail if it rests only on the shoulders of the elders, preachers, and “the faithful few.” The late Wendell Winkler would say, “Programs don’t work. People do.” Programs are only as effective as the people in the local church work to make them. This church is blessed with an active membership, which you demonstrate throughout the year. Active members are so crucial to a church being successful in God’s eyes. Here is a tribute to some very special members of our congregation.

The Remembers: You are the ones who do not “forget” the activities that are announced and promoted. On scarce but irritating occasions, a member might say, “Oh, was that this weekend?” To the “remembers,” church programs and activities are special and important. As Moses commanded the Jews, you take seriously this ever-relevant principle, “But you shall remember the Lord your God...” (Deut. 8:18). God does not like to be forgotten (see Ps. 42:9; Jer. 2:32; Ezek. 22:12), and the “remembers” do not forget Him!

The Dismembers: You sever yourself from your normal routines, preempting all else to put the Lord first—for the assemblies, for workdays, for congregational activities, etc. Good for you! You are living out Matthew 6:33 and Romans 12:1-2. God will richly bless you for it. You know it is better to “cut off” anything that will keep you from doing your best for the Master (cf. Heb. 12:1).

The Ember Members: Because you are so involved, you keep your fire lit. You want to be a better Christian, servant, parent, spouse, employee, and child of God. Keep the fires of enthusiasm, rededication, and determination burning brightly. We see your glow. It encourages all of us. You can help smoke out the spiritual enemy through your fire!

God bless all faithful members of His church. Your support for good works is overwhelming! Let us use each event and activity to make this church, with its every member, stronger!

Neal Pollard
