Volume 27 Issue 22

June 2, 2024

When the seven days were almost over, the Jews from Asia, upon seeing him in the temple, began to stir up all the crowd and laid hands on him, crying out, “Men of Israel, come to our aid! This is the man who preaches to all men everywhere against our people and the Law and this place; and besides he has even brought Greeks into the temple and has defiled this holy place” (Acts 21:27-28 NASB).

Kind Words

Politicians rarely have anything nice to say. As the election grows closer, their condemning of other candidates becomes more and more vicious. It seems that candidates are less interested in making their viewpoints heard and more determined to destroy an opponent’s reputation. Politicians rarely say kind words about the competition.

As current elections are heating up, I am more and more appreciative of my Christian family who refuses to engage in verbal abuses of each other. My brothers and sisters in Christ are serious about treating each other the way they want to be treated by others especially when one of us does something foolish (Mt. 7:12). They are devoted to edification: “Let no unwholesome word proceed from your mouth, but only such a word as is good for edification according to the need of the moment, so that it will give grace to these who hear” (Eph. 4:29).

Rather than ridiculing and verbally humiliating each other, we choose to respect one another. Gossip and blaspheming are shunned (Tit. 2:3; Jas. 4:11). In the family of God, we do not tell lies about each other (Col. 3:9). We do not condemn opinions which we may not share (Rom. 14:13).

In a world filled with meanness, let’s delight in kind words. Let’s protect reputations, encourage the weak, and comfort the suffering. We are strange to the world because of our kind words to friends and enemies alike.
