God is our refuge and strength, A very present help in trouble. Therefore we will not fear, though the earth should change And though the mountains slip into the heart of the sea; Though its waters roar and foam, Though the mountains quake at its swelling pride. Selah. There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, The holy dwelling places of the Most High. God is in the midst of her, she will not be moved; God will help her when morning dawns. The nations made an uproar, the kingdoms tottered; He raised His voice, the earth melted. The LORD of hosts is with us; The God of Jacob is our stronghold. Selah. (Ps 46:1-7 NASB1995).

Choosing Right

Have you ever noticed that even though people know the right thing to do, they will choose to do wrong anyway? On occasion, Christians are guilty of knowing what pleases God and choosing to sin anyway. Thus, it seems that walking in the Light and having a relationship with God is more about choosing to do right than merely having the correct information (1 John 1:7). What good is it to know the right thing to do but do the wrong one?

Knowing what God wants is easy enough. Anyone one who can read the Bible can know God’s will. Having the faith to obey God’s word is the true test of loyalty (Hebrews 5:8). Christians should know the Bible well, but we must also have the commitment to choosing to live by the commandments of God. Jesus says it this way: “Therefore everyone who hears these words of Mine, and acts upon them, may be compared to a wise man, who built his house upon the rock” (Matthew 7:24).

Let’s be more than Bible scholars. Let’s be wise and live the word of God. When your desire is not God’s desire make the right choice and submit to God’s will... every time.
